	)	[JURY TRIAL DEMANDED]

The parties have conducted extensive discovery in this case, and such discovery is ongoing. The parties have also repeatedly met and conferred with regard to discovery, through their counsel, including expert discovery. There is no trial date yet set in this matter, though there is a deadline for filing of dispositive motions at the end of August, 2010, and a Preliminary Pretrial Conference with Judge Ware, set for Monday, June 28, 2010. Regular, non-expert discovery is still ongoing, but will not conclude until as late as August 2, 2010, based upon Judge Ware's

Scheduling Order, dated June 30, 2009. Since experts base their opinions, in part, upon evidence obtained via non-expert discovery, which will not be concluded until August 2, 2010, counsel have agreed that the Disclosure of Expert Witnesses, slated for this month, is somewhat premature for this case.

IT IS THEREBY STIPULATED, BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES, that the Disclosure of Expert Witnesses, current scheduled for May 31, 2010, shall be continued thirty (30) days, to June 30, 2010. The parties further stipulate to a thirty (30) day continuance to the exchange and lodging of any and all required expert reports (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B)).

All remaining dates and deadlines (e.g., rebuttal experts and objection to experts' qualifications), including the date of the June 28, 2010 Preliminary Pretrial Conference with Judge Ware, shall remain unchanged from the Scheduling Order dated June 30, 2009.
